AI Overview

To get a Société de transport de Montréal (STM) OPUS card with a photo—which is required to access reduced transit fares—you can apply online through your school portal or in person by booking an appointment.

👥 Who is Eligible & How Much Does It Cost?

- Full-time students (Ages 6–64): Eligible for student reduced fares. Costs $6 for ages 6–11 and $15 for ages 12 and up.
- Seniors (Ages 65+): Eligible for reduced fares and free transit within Zone A if they are Montreal residents. Costs $15. STM +2

💻 Method 1: Apply Online (Students Only)

If you are a full-time student at a recognized Quebec institution (such as Concordia University or HEC Montréal), this is the fastest option. STM +2

- How to apply: Log into your school's student portal, navigate to the OPUS Card section, and order it directly.
- Requirements: Your school must already have a digital photo of you on file, and you must have a Quebec mailing address.
- Delivery: Paid via credit card; your card arrives by mail within 7 business days. Concordia University +2

🚶 Method 2: Apply In Person (Students & Seniors)

You must visit the official photo studio if your school does not offer online orders, or if you are applying for a 65+ Senior OPUS Card. STM +1

2. Go to the Studio: Located at 1755 Berri Street (connected to the Berri-UQAM Metro station). STM +1
3. Bring Your Documents:
   - Students: An official printed attestation of full-time school status and a valid government photo ID with your date of birth.
   - Seniors: A completed application form and a valid government photo ID. Montreal residents seeking the free fare must also bring a proof of residence dated within the last year. STM +3
4. Payment: Debit or credit card ($15 fee). STM
